Publications

Yearbook for Traditional Music

The Yearbook for Traditional Music is a refereed scholarly journal, which carries essays, reviews, and reports in the area of traditional music and dance research. Since 2022, the Yearbook is published twice a year—in July and December—in both print and electronic forms.

Printed back issues of the Yearbook are available from the ICTM Secretariat, from Vol. 1 (1969) through Vol. 50 (2018), at 23.00 EUR (18.00 EUR for members in good standing) per volume, plus shipping and handling. A 10% discount is available for orders of more than 10 copies of the same volume shipped to the same address.

The whole run of the Yearbook for Traditional Music and its predecessors is available via Cambridge Core.

Bulletin of the ICTM

The Bulletin of the ICTM carries news from the world of traditional music and dance, a calendar of upcoming events, and reports from Study Groups and National and Regional Representatives. The Bulletin is made available free of charge every January, April, and October on the ICTM website.

Electronic back issues of all Bulletins are available free of charge from the ICTM's website.

INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL FOR TRADITIONAL MUSIC

General Information

Founded by scholars and musicians on 22 September 1947, the International Council for Traditional Music is a scholarly organization which aims to further the study, practice, documentation, preservation, and dissemination of traditional music and dance of all countries. To these ends the Council organizes World Conferences, Symposia, and Colloquia, and publishes the Yearbook for Traditional Music and the online Bulletin of the ICTM.

As a non-governmental organization in formal consultative relations with UNESCO and by means of its wide international representation and the activities of its Study Groups, the International Council for Traditional Music acts as a bond among peoples of different cultures and thus contributes to the peace of humankind.
